

NOVEMBER 2017

The Echo

UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
2122 University Avenue
Grand Forks, North Dakota 58203

The Apostle Paul poses two strange questions in I Corinthians 15:55: "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" They are strange, because anyone who has ever been around death, especially the death of a loved one, has felt the horrible loss and raw sting of death. As a pastor, I have witnessed this repeatedly. I have been there when tears were like waterfalls, when the question "why" boomed like thunder, and when grief was like a sleepless night that never ends. In some ways, we might wonder if the Apostle Paul has ever lost someone he loves.

As I write this, I'm staring at the names of twenty-one people whose funerals I led since All Saints' Sunday, November 6, 2016. That's a lot of "loss" and "sting" for one congregation. I think it's quite possible for someone to conclude that death has won more than a few victories. So, what in the world was Paul thinking when he asked these questions? Was he ignorant of the great loss and pain that people experience when a loved one dies? Was he insensitive to the sadness and hardship that people encounter at such times of grief? Or did Paul have something else in mind?

Mollie Mae Olson died December 3, 2016. She was 99 years old. She and Margaret Ellertson, who died later in December, were our last two living charter members. Mollie and I had several conversations in the weeks preceding her death. At first, when doctors told her that her heart was too weak and there was nothing they could do to strengthen it, she was not ready to simply give in and leave her life behind, especially her friends and family. I also think she was still interested in the idea of being 100, too. So, I remember telling her that she needn't be in a hurry to go to heaven.

Yet, after a few days of being in the hospital, Mollie started to feel weaker and less content. Her mind began to focus on heaven and Christ, and Lorando and Jerry, her husband and son. She had no doubts about heaven, and believed death was the gateway there. She became extremely curious about being with Jesus, and seeing Him face to face, not only through her faith. Plus, she wanted very much to be with Lorando and Jerry, whom she believed were waiting for her. In other words, Mollie was finally at peace with the end of her life here, and the beginning of her new life in Christ.

Perhaps through Mollie, we can understand why the Apostle Paul poses his two questions. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting? Indeed, to a person of faith like Mollie, death has no victory, because of the resurrection of Jesus and the promise of eternal life to all who believe in Him. Furthermore, now the sting of death is more like a kiss from Jesus, who caught Mollie when she fell in death, and who took her by the hand to lead her to God's heaven. So, Paul was neither ignorant, nor was he insensitive. He simply, like Mollie, had faith in Jesus Christ.

As we remember a year of 21 funerals, as we remember fondly those friends and family who have died, we do so with this same faith in the Lord. This faith gives us confidence that our Savior Jesus Christ not only forgives our sin and delivers us from evil, but He promises us and everyone who has faith in Him, heaven and eternal life. How can death be victorious when the tomb is empty, and the Lord Jesus is resurrected and alive? How can death be victorious when Jesus promises to prepare a place for us in heaven, and then one day to return to bring us there?

As Paul writes in I Corinthians 15:57: "Thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through Jesus Christ." I invite you to live life and face death with such confidence. Then, as we light candles on All Saints' Sunday, November 5, we are indeed celebrating Jesus' victory over death, as well as His promises of heaven and eternal life to all who believe. At the same time, since our grief for those we love most is so difficult, even when we believe these promises, may our confidence in Jesus this All Saints' and beyond, be accompanied by great love, compassion, hugs, and prayers for each other.

You are in my prayers, Peter Dan

Worship Notes

All Saints' Sunday Worship Service is November 5

All Saint's Sunday is a festival of the church year where we give recognition to the saints of the church. Properly speaking, saints are people who have faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and his saving work on the cross. At University Lutheran, this is our time to remember those ULC saints from the past year that died with this faith, as well as those who we baptized into this faith.

As in previous years, this recognition will include lighting white and red candles on the altar, as well as presenting white and red carnations to the respective families. There will also be opportunity for each one of us to remember those saints who have impacted our lives by the writing of their names on a cross in the back of the sanctuary.

Red Willow Ministry Sunday is November 12

We are pleased to have Rick Frederick, the Executive Director of Red Willow Ministries, with us for worship. He will bring a greeting and a message to us from Red Willow. Many of our children have gone to Bible camp at Red Willow over the years. We will receive a special offering that day for the camp.

Thanksgiving Eve Worship is November 22

All To Thee, Our God, We Owe

It is hard to believe, but the holiday season begins this month with our Thanksgiving Eve worship service on November 22. The evening will begin with a meal at 5:00 pm. We will enjoy soups, bread, and pumpkin dessert. Worship will begin at 6:00 pm.

Our theme this year is, "All To Thee, Our God, We Owe". In this service, we will consider our response to God's blessings and bounty as an I.O.U. We will also collect food items for the Salvation Army Food Pantry. This year, we are suggesting soup, canned fruits and vegetables, cold cereal, peanut butter, and any kind of boxed or canned meals. Of course, we will gladly receive all non-perishable items. We thank you for remembering the hungry in our community. All envelope and cash offerings will go toward ULC, to help overcome our shortfall.

Please join us this evening for this family-oriented evening, and get your Thanksgiving and your holiday season off to a wonderful start.

Christ, the King is November 26

On this Sunday, we will consider the many ways that Jesus is our king, as well as the king of the universe. We may have certain ideas of what it means to have a king, and probably many of these ideas are not very positive. However, it is the Lord Jesus Christ, who is an extremely different sort of king!

Now, the Feast and Holy Communion in November

Holy Communion on Wednesdays will be on the regular weeks, November 1 and 15. On Sundays, however, we are moving Communion dates from the first and third Sundays, to the second and fourth. These dates are November 12 and 26. Our liturgy, "Now, the Feast", will be on November 12.

Wednesday Sermon Series

The Small Catechism – Roots of Our Faith

On three Wednesdays in November (November 8, 15, and 29), we will have a mini-series on Martin Luther's, "The Small Catechism". The three pillars of the catechism are the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, and the Lord's Prayer. We will take one week to overview each pillar:

November 8:	"Constitution of our Faith"	10 Commandments
November 15:	"I Love You Times Three"	Apostles' Creed
November 22:	"How to Speak with God"	Lord's Prayer

Advent Worship Begins December 3 Moving Toward the Manger

Advent, our 4-week focus on the coming of Jesus into the world, begins on Sunday, December 3. Our theme for Advent this year will be, "Moving Toward the Manger". There will be more information available in November bulletins and in the December issue of the ECHO. Please stay tuned for all the details.

Noisy Offerings

During the month of November, we focus our noisy offerings on Northlands Rescue Mission. We will receive all coins, bills, and checks, and at the end of the month, they will be sent to the Mission. We also encourage anyone who may wish to contribute a larger gift to the Mission during this month to do so. Simply mark your gift as "The Mission" on the memo line of your check.

New Member Events

Welcome to ULC!

We have scheduled new member events to December. If you would like to become a member of ULC or you know someone who would, please speak with Pastor Tom. The dates are Wednesday, December 13, and Sunday, December 17. The Sunday event includes a meal after worship, which will also serve as a fundraiser for ELCA Domestic and Global Hunger Appeal. New members are invited to a ULC orientation meeting on Thursday, December 12, at 6:30, in the lounge.

A New Picture Directory

We have completed round one of our new online picture directory. We did not get too many pictures – only about 75. That means you can take your own pictures on your cell phone and send them to the church office (ulcoffice@midconetwork.com), or submit the hard copy of a previously taken picture so that we can scan it into the directory. At some point in the future, we may have more picture taking opportunities. Now, we will purchase our new software and produce a very small initial directory.

Operation Christmas Child

Blessed and Gifted to Serve

to Serve

Our service emphasis for November is Operation Christmas Child.

This is a program of Franklin Graham's relief organization called Samaritan's Purse. Operation Christmas Child is simple. We bring Christmas joy to needy children across the world by loading shoe boxes full of items these children need and enjoy.

Look for the familiar red and green shoe boxes in the narthex. All you do is pick up one or more of those boxes, take them home with you, and go shopping. Inside the box will be instructions of what sorts of things you should or might purchase and put in the box. Once you fill your box, then bring it back to church between November 15-19.

If you do not wish to fill a box, you can simply pick up an item or two and we can put them in boxes for you. Also, each box costs $7 to ship overseas, so if you are wishing to donate to help us to send the boxes, that would be awesome!

Thank you so much for your willingness to bless and gift the children of our world!

ULC Serves Love Feast

Tuesday, November 28

This is the 16th year of Love Feast! ULC has been active serving one monthly meal for all 16 years. This meal is a great opportunity for churches to provide hot and delicious meals in a community setting for a wide variety of people. We will do this once again at Zion United Methodist on 24th Avenue South in Grand Forks. The meal is served from 5:00-7:00 pm., although there are times we can use help throughout the day.

Since we serve in November, it is our tradition to serve turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, corn, roll, and pumpkin desserts. We hope adults, youth, and families will sign up to help! Please look in the church narthex for sign up sheets. We will need people volunteering to prepare food, set tables, serve the meal, clean up afterwards, as well as to bake pumpkin desserts in advance.

A Clean Church Yard

Saturday, November 4

You are invited to help us put the finishing touches on our church yard before winter on Saturday, November 4, at 8:30am. Wear gloves, bring a rake, and be ready to clean out gardens and make one last effort to clean up the leaves on our property. This should be a simple morning project, and we will have you on your way home before noon. Make sure and dress warm if it is a cold day! Thanks in advance for your help.

UND Mortar Board Turkey Baskets

38th Annual Year!

If you or anyone you know needs a turkey basket for Thanksgiving this year, please call or speak with Pastor Tom. The deadline to request such a basket is Friday, November 3. Baskets can be picked up at the UND Transportation Building on Saturday, November 18, from 10 am to 2 pm. If anyone needs assistance picking up their basket, that can be arranged too. This program is meant to benefit for those who need a little help, so if you do, please do not hesitate to ask!

Fall Financial News

General Fund "Catch up" and January Stewardship Emphases

As the end of the year approaches, it is time to "catch up" our general fund. As of September 30, we were short $28,733 in the general fund. Thank you for your extra gifts in September, as we had our first "in the black" month since last spring. We are current with all our bills, only because of our $30,000 reserve fund. This fund, however, as you know, must be paid back.

We will not be having a fall stewardship emphasis this November. Instead, the church council has decided to do a special 4-week series after Christmas. Our theme will be, "A Walk with Jesus".

The series will be the following weeks and themes: January 14 – Walk; January 21 – Listen; January 28 – Give; and February 6 (Annual Meeting) – Response Sunday.

Thank you for all Your blessings and gifts to us. We thank You for the precious gift of family and friends, for all those who are here with us today and those who are far away.

Thank you for your abundance and grace. For being with us every single day. We thank You for showing us glimpses of heavenly beauty through the eyes of our loved ones, through nature, songs of praise and even warm sunlight.

We are grateful for the roof over heads and a warm place to sleep every night. Thank You for blessing us with all of the food on our table today.

We thank You for all those You have brought into our lives to lead us, to guide us and to protect us. Thank You for parents, teachers, counselors, and mentors. Bless each of them in a special way today, Lord. AMEN
