

OCTOBER 2017

The Echo

UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
2122 University Avenue
Grand Forks, North Dakota 58203

This month, we celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. In the Reformation, Martin Luther, and other reformers, rediscovered the primacy of faith in our relationship with God. These reformers, in emphasizing the forgiveness, grace, and love of God, began an evangelical movement that gave people permission to relate to God in a personal way – through faith. All this really means, according to Luther himself, is that we love and trust God. I hope the following cat story, and more serious paragraphs that follow it, will help you to reflect on your relationship with the Lord.

Every morning when I come upstairs from my shower and shave, there are two cats waiting hopefully for me in the kitchen. One cat, Piper, is laying on top of the refrigerator, and the other cat, Pepper, is sitting on the counter right next to a very special jar. They are waiting for me to open the jar and give them what they are hoping for, their morning treat. These days they are waiting for what I think is their new favorite flavor, tantalizing turkey. If you just rolled your eyes, you are definitely not a cat, because these so-called turkey treats totally tantalize these two cats.

What amazes me about this morning ritual is the faith these cats have that I will give them their treat. If I vary my routine at all, or if I just for the fun of it, intentionally delay giving them what they are hoping for, they simply do not lose heart. They seem to expect I will be good to them and will give them their treat, even though on some mornings if I am particularly pokey, they are not too proud to petition me with their two very distinctive meows. Pepper in particular, will jump off the counter, leaving behind the precious jar, to remind me that it is treat time by brushing up against my legs.

We can learn a lot about faith from our pets. If we are good and gracious to them, these furry friends are perfectly capable of having loving and trusting relationships with us. Since I have shown Pepper and Piper reason to love and trust me, they know I will feed them, scoop their litter box, play with them, and give them their morning treat. Since I have been good and gracious to them, they expect me always to act kindly and lovingly toward them. That is why when I come home after work, they do not run away and hide from me, but they without fail greet me expectantly at the door.

Is this not the sort of relationship we are to have with God? Of course, we are not God's pets, we are God's children. But still, I am certain that what God wants from us is love and trust. God wants us to wait expectantly for Him, yes, like a pet at the door, trusting that we will receive from his hand, kindness and love, help and grace, and whatever we need in life. Yes, God wants loving and trusting relationships with us, in which we do not lose heart when life is hard, and in which we are never too busy or proud to petition, pray, even brush up against to God, for help and guidance.

One of my favorite verses about faith is from Proverbs 3:5-6, where it says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding, acknowledge him in all your ways, and he will make your paths straight." This verse expects that God is good and gracious, and therefore, we may trust the Lord in this life to forgive us every time we sin, hear us every time we pray, care for us every time we struggle, love us every time we fail, and rescue us every time we face evil. Such faith is a saving faith, because we love, trust, and seek to be near God, who saves us in every way.

Such faith also trusts that God catches us on the day we die, lifts us to a new life in Christ, and leads us to heaven and eternal life. So, like my cats, we wait hopefully too. But we wait for much more than tantalizing turkey treats. We wait for God who created us, who daily and abundantly provides for us, who protects us against evil, who died on a cross to free us from sin and death, and who has a bright future in mind for us, both here in this world and one day in heaven. And even though I don't know everything about this future, I trust God with all my heart that it will be wonderful.

You are in my prayers, Peter Pan

October Worship Matters

World Communion Sunday and ULC Chapel Choir Returns

October 1

Christians across the world will be celebrating Holy Communion, the Lord's Supper, on Sunday, October 1, not only for the grace and love provided in the meal, but also as a sign of Christian Unity. We will do the same at ULC! As part of our observance of this special day, our ULC Chapel Choir will sing its first Choir Anthem in nearly a year, under the direction of new choir director, KariJo O'Keefe.

OCTOBER

Bible Sunday and Wednesday

October 8 and 11

We have heard the voices of children exclaim, "The B-I-B-L-E, yes that's the book for me. I stand alone on the Word of God, the B-I-B-L-E!" On Sunday, October 8 and Wednesday, October 11, we will be adding our voices to this celebration of the Word of God, the Bible. On these Bible days, we will give story Bibles to our 3-year old children, story books to our first and second grade children, and the Holy Bible to our third-grade children, at our two worship services. We thank our ULC Women of the ELCA for providing the Bibles and story Bibles.

Campus Ministry Sunday and Now, the Feast

October 15

We will continue singing our new liturgy, "Now, the Feast and Celebration" on October 15. We will also have members of the Christus Rex community with us this day too, greeting and leading us, as this day has been declared Campus Ministry Sunday in the Grand Forks Conference. We will take a special offering for campus ministry.

ULC Chapel Choir Sings Sundays and Wednesdays

October 1 and 11

As the Chapel Choir returns, we are endeavoring to sing on Wednesdays as well as Sundays, as much as possible. We will begin this in October, singing on Sunday, October 1, and Wednesday, October 11. Hopefully, worshipers on both Wednesday and Sunday will appreciate the return of choir music to ULC.

500th Anniversary of the Reformation

October 29

We hope you will join us for worship on October 29, for the celebration of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. We will sing Reformation hymns, enjoy special music, hand out Small Catechisms, hear a sermon, and in a most unusual way, be visited by Martin and Katie Luther. During the month of October, there will also be some bulletin inserts about the Reformation. Then after we are done with worship, we will gather in the fellowship hall for a delicious Lutheran potluck! Please bring a hot dish, jell-o, salad, buns, chips, pickles, dessert, or something else to share.

October Fun and Service

Blessed and Gifted

Blessed and Gifted to Serve Project #1

Noisy Offering for Hurricane Relief

There is so much need in Texas, Florida, and Puerto Rico, due to Hurricanes Harvey, Irma, Maria, that we are using our noisy offerings in both September and October for hurricane relief. We are receiving larger donations as well. Please make sure and designate all such gifts as hurricane relief. All money will be sent to ELCA Disaster Response, to help their efforts in all three places.

to Serve

Blessed and Gifted to Serve Project #2

Undies Sundays and Wednesdays

The United Way is collecting underwear for needy families in the Grand Forks area again this year. As usual, ULC is a collection site. Undies Sundays are October 8, 15, and 22. Undies Wednesdays are October 4, 11, and 18. There is need for underwear for people of all ages male and female – infants (diapers), children, teens, and adults. All items must be new! Place them in the box in the narthex.

ULC Fish Fry

Sponsored by Calling All Men

We are hosting our first ever and maybe first annual ULC Fish Fry on Sunday, October 8, from 5:00-7:00 pm. This fish (walleye) has been caught by ULC members (thank you Kevin and Shelly Meyer, and Dan Melberg) this summer season at Devils Lake. The fish will be served with french fries, coleslaw, bun (made by Genny Olson), and dessert. The cost of the event is simply a free will offering! All proceeds will go to ULC.

Trunk or Treat Festival

Tuesday, October 31

We invite ULC members, friends, and the larger Grand Forks Community to spend Halloween with us. On Tuesday, October 31, we will host our annual "Trunk or Treat" Festival from 6:00-8:00 pm in our parking lot.

On this night, we are asking as many of you as possible to decorate the trunks of your cars, vans, SUVs and trucks. Children will then move from trunk to trunk to receive whatever treat you are giving away. Last year we had over 300 people attend, so we will have extra candy on hand to supplement whatever you bring. Also, as part of the evening, we will serve a light supper of hot dogs, chips, dessert, and beverage.

Will you consider assisting us with this ministry project? We need people with decorated trunks and workers for the kitchen too. Call the church office to see how you can help.

PLEASE NOTE: We are also collecting non-perishable food for the Salvation Army Pantry. One trunk will be open and designated to collect these items.

Reformation Sermon Series

Four "Solos"

During the month October, we will have a sermon series on "Four Solas" of the Reformation. It is really Martin Luther who made them famous – Word alone, Faith alone, Grace alone, and Christ alone. The word "sola" means "alone" in English. Join us for worship on either Sunday or Wednesday, and see how these four "solos" are still important for us today.

Word Alone – October 8 and 11
Faith Alone – October 15 and 18
Grace Alone – October 22 and 25
Christ Alone – October 29 and November 1

The Unreformed Luther

A Book Study

You are invited to join Pastor Tom for a light-hearted yet serious book about Martin Luther, called the "Unreformed Luther" by Andreas Malessa. It is only 160 pages, yet it is full of the most important details of Luther's life and work. It will both open your eyes and make you laugh. It will help you get to know the man behind the myths. One thing for sure, you will not regret reading the book, or attending the book study. Will you please join us for four weeks on Thursdays, at 6:30 in the lounge, beginning October 12. The cost of the book is $15. Childcare is also an option, but please call the church office to reserve your spot.

Please Join Us for the Film

This service is for all parents who have experienced a miscarriage in the past six months and any family members or friends who wish to attend. The service will be held at Babyland in Calvary Cemetery, Grand Forks. All who wish to attend are welcome. Wy's Floral provides flowers for the burial. Members of the Altru Pastoral Services team will be available if you would like to talk to someone before or following the service. Adult Education

Sunday Adult Class: REFORMATION 500!

The Adult Class is studying the Reformation. The main part of the study will center on the role of Martin Luther, though we will also have conversations about the background of the Reformation, and the effect the Renaissance had on the birth and the growth of Protestantism. Finally, we will ask how the Reformation impacts us today, particularly the relationship between Christians of all denominations. Join us 8:45 on Sundays and be part of this important discussion as we celebrate our faith!

Women of the ELCA: THE APOSTLES' CREED

This fall, you are invited to take part in a three-session Gather Bible study on the Apostles' Creed, and learn what we together say we believe. "The Apostles' Creed," is a Bible study written by Julia Seymour, pastor at Lutheran Church of Hope, Anchorage, Alaska. On October 13, our class is entitled, "I believe in Jesus Christ", and we will discuss what it is we truly believe about our Lord. All women are invited to join us for coffee, fellowship, conversation, and learning.

Calling All Men: My Favorite Bible Verse

In October, Calling All Men will change course and start a more personal time of study and reflection, by asking the question, "What is your favorite Bible verse?" Each month, a different man will share with us what they feel is their favorite verse or even verses from the Bible, and why. You will not be leading a Bible study, but you will be starting a conversation! And yes, of course, we will have breakfast pizza! Men, please join us on Saturday, October 21, at 8:30 am.

Thursday Morning Bible Study: THE HEART OF ROMANS

The Thursday Morning Bible Study will peer into the heart of the Apostle Paul's Letter to the Romans to see how well it beats. This letter was in many ways central to reformers from Martin Luther to the Wesley brothers. Over the course of eight weeks, this course will survey what is central to this work by Paul, and see why it has been such a blessing to Christians throughout the centuries. Please join each week at 9:30 a.m. in the lounge and we will see the heart of Romans is healthy still today!

Two Thank You Notes

From "For His Children" orphanages in Ecuador:

Dear Church Body,

We cannot thank you enough for your love, encouragement, and support you have poured on the ministry of For His Children, and the precious children and families we serve. Sincerely, Rachel Kennon

From Emily Shimpa:

Dear ULC,

Thank you so, so much for the Bible! It is a gift that I will take with me, no matter where I go. I am so blessed to have grown up in such a loving and supportive church family. I thank God every day that all of you have been put in my life as role models and friends. Thanks again for everything.

Confirmation Highlights

Grades 7-9 Confirmation

First, we will have regular classes on Sundays, October 1, 8, 15, and 29, as well as on Wednesdays, October 4, 11, and 25. There are no classes on Wednesday, October 18 and Sunday, October 22, due to the NDEA break.

Second, remember that you should be working on your first 10 worship notes! They are available in or near the cabinet by the pew at the entrance of the sanctuary. After you fill them out, please leave them for Pastor Tom on that same pew.

Grade 10 Confirmation

This year, we are moving confirmation to a later date. We are a smaller class and are working toward a best time, though it will not be in October. Please stay tuned in the near future for an announcement of the date, maybe even in December.

Fall Financial News

Thank you to everyone for your offerings during the summer months. As is our pattern, the summer months meant a large drop of income for us. At the end of August, we were short $33,208 in the general fund, which is almost exactly where we were last year at this time. Offerings in September seem to be much better, so we are hopeful that the shortfall will decrease in a significant way. A "Catch Up" envelope was sent out in the mail. Please help, if you are able. No gift is too small! We are grateful for all your generous giving throughout the year, whether that be for general fund, building fund, High 5, Catch Up, or the benevolent causes we support as a congregation.

A New Picture Directory

Are you ready for a new church picture directory? We will take pictures before and after worship on Wednesdays, September 27, October 4 and 11, and Sundays, October 1, 8, and 15. We hope to have two stations for you to have your picture taken with a digital camera or a smart phone. We will then load these pictures onto our computer to create both an online and hard copy church directory.

You can also take your own picture and send them to us online, or give us a hard copy of a picture so we can scan it into the directory. We cannot use professional pictures, however, unless we have written permission from the photographer. This directory will always be current, even new members can be added immediately

Please make every effort to stop and get your picture taken so that our efforts to have an up to date directory will be successful!
