The Echo

UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

2122 University Avenue

Grand Forks, North Dakota 58203

The rhythm of the Church year seems strange to me for this reason, we proclaim "Christ is risen! He is risen indeed. Alleluia!", and then we scoot off for summer vacation. It's not that I don't enjoy a break and appreciate a change in schedule. We all need a little downtime, right? However, if you are following my logic, it's almost like we welcome the risen Lord back from the grave, and then leave him behind holding the bag. I suppose he's used to it. The original disciples abandoned Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, and we sometimes abandon him for summer. See you in the fall, Lord Jesus!

Of course, I am kidding. Church sanctuaries are not the only place we can worship the Lord and proclaim, "Christ is risen!" This can happen wherever we go this summer, because Jesus promises he is always with us. Actually, it is my hope you feel free enough to tell family and friends and that Jesus is risen, and that he is a living Lord who is part of your everyday life. For example, when you offer to pray for someone who is in the midst of hardship, I dare you to say, "I'll bring your concern up to the Lord the minute I get home." Or even better say, "Hey, can we pray to the Lord about this right now?"

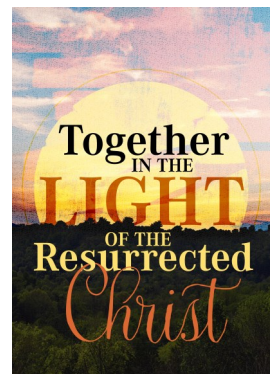

John 21 is one of my favorite resurrection stories. Here Peter doesn't recognize Jesus standing on the shore until his friend John points this out to him. You probably know the story. The disciples have seen the risen Lord a couple of times but still seem to be wondering what in the world is going on. So, one night, Peter, originally a fisherman by trade, says, "I am going fishing." Six other disciples join him, and they fish all night long without catching a single fish. Then a mysterious person on the shore tells them to try fishing the right side of the boat. Maybe they hadn't thought of that yet!

It just so happens there are 153 fish on the right side of the boat and the disciples begin to drag the fish into the shore. It is at that moment, and after that miracle that John says to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Peter then jumps into the sea and swims about 100 yards to shore to see him. What I think is most interesting is that Peter could not recognize the risen Lord Jesus until John told him it was Jesus. John points out to Peter that the Lord Jesus really is alive and ready to have breakfast with them on the banks of the Sea of Galilee. As I said earlier, Jesus is a living Lord who is part of our everyday lives.

Certainly, this is good news for us. Whatever challenges we face, Jesus is risen, living alongside us, and ready to take on our day with us. For example, at this very moment, my niece Emily is 31 weeks pregnant and in the hospital on bed rest due to certain complications. She and the baby are doing well physically, although Emily is wishing she could be resting at home with her family. Recently, I was texting with my sister, Terri, Emily's mom, and we talked about how Emily is living through this challenge one day at a time and doing OK with it, because she trusts the risen Lord right there with her.

However, there will be times when people around us are going through struggles and cannot see the Lord is risen and with them. I believe Peter was struggling like this. Before Jesus was crucified, he had been accused three different times of being a friend and follower of Jesus, and because he felt threatened and scared, he strongly denied that he even knew him. So, Peter was living with a lot of guilt, which may have been preventing him from fully recognizing that Jesus was risen, alive, and definitely not mad at him. John graciously points out to Peter, "Hey, Pete, really, it's the Lord on the shore."

As followers of Jesus, this is our role too, whether we are at ULC attending worship all summer, relaxing at the lake, or just quietly enjoying the change in our daily routines. We are to help anyone who for whatever reason is struggling to see that Jesus is alive and willing to be part of their everyday lives. It's as simple as saying, "I am sorry you are going through this, and today I am going to pray to the Lord that he will come and help you." I would call this evangelism, but I don't want to scare you away from it! All Jesus wants you to do to tell people that he is a living Lord and willing to help them.

He is risen indeed. Alleluia! You are in my prayers,

Peter Pan

Worship Highlights

Mother's Day Worship Sunday, May 11

Please join us for worship on Mother's Day! The day will include some extras to make it a special day for our moms – including youth assisting with worship, a gift for moms as well as all adult women in attendance, and finally brunch after the worship service. The menu for brunch is chicken salad croissant, fruit, and dessert. The cost is simply a free will offering with all proceeds going toward Community Violence Intervention Center (CVIC).

Memorial Day Sunday May 25

Memorial Day weekend is May 24-26. As Christian people, we believe God calls us to add our voices to the public square to share the love of Christ and proclaim the Gospel. However, at the same time, we are welcome to be patriotic and love our country. So, in our worship service on May 25 we will honor our US Veterans and include some of our favorite patriotic songs like: "America the Beautiful", "This Is My Song", and "Battle Hymn of the Republic".

Graduation Recognition Sunday June 1

This is our day to recognize our graduating High School Seniors. Senior class, you are invited to join us for worship before your graduation service. There will be a special gift for you, as well as a cake reception in your honor. It is also our intention to announce the recipients of our Paul and Bonnie Cox scholarships that day. Also, please give us a copy of your senior picture, and tell us what you plan to do in the fall of 2025, for our slide presentation.

Mission of the Month

Our Noisy offerings for May will go toward the Community Violence Intervention Center (CVIC). CVIC has a long history in Grand Forks of responding to sexual assault, abuse, and violence in the home, and the many other shapes violence takes in our community. All money collected through our noisy offering cans (coins, dollars and checks) will go toward CVIC.

Wednesday Worship Hiatus

Our last WWJ class for this year will be May 14. On this Wednesday, some of our ULC youth will provide music, and others will help lead worship. After this service, we will have a short 2-week break from Wednesday worship before summer Wednesday worship begins. In other words, there is no Wednesday worship on May 21 and 28. This will give our musicians and other worship leaders a helpful pause and rest from their weekly service.

Summer Wednesday Worship – Picnic and Praise June 4

Summer Wednesday Worship will begin in June. We will picnic (indoors) with simple yet delicious meals at 5:00pm, and praise God through worship with Holy Communion at 6:00pm. During the first four weeks of summer, the month of June, we will worship with a sermon series on the Old Testament book, "Jonah", called "Amazing Grace". Come to learn about this amazing story and the two biblical worldviews in the Hebrew Scriptures.

Lent and Easter Sunday Numbers

We had a very nice Lent and Easter in 2025. Our Wednesday theme, "Be Still and Know That I Am God", and Sunday theme, "In God We Trust", were well received. Our worship attendance was similar to last year. The first number is 2024 and the second is 2025:

Ash Wednesday	215/223	Sunday Lent 1	94/87
Wednesday 2	159/148	Sunday Lent 2	104/108
Wednesday 3	166/184	Sunday Lent 3	104/59 (bad weather)
Wednesday 4	174/186	Sunday Lent 4	92/98
Wednesday 5	164/177	Sunday Lent 5	98/99
Wednesday 6	179/169	Palm Sunday	147/166
Maundy Thursday	119/115	Sunday 8am	142/144
Good Friday	96/110	Easter Sunday 10am	231/246

Mission Endowment Meeting

May 6

The next meeting of the ULC Mission Endowment is Tuesday, May 6. 5:30pm, in the fellowship hall. Our time for accepting grant requests has passed for this spring meeting, but please feel free to submit a request anyway for future grant consideration.

Visitation Team

May 9

Please join us Friday, May 9, 1:00pm, in the narthex to write and send cards for homebound, nursing home and other people. This has been a great way for us to reach out to people in our congregation. We welcome anyone who would like to write cards.

Wheels to Worship

If you are interested in getting rides to worship in our van, please call the church office so we can arrange a ride for you. We are using the van for other reasons, but we hope to use it on Sundays and Wednesdays to bring people to worship as well. Please call by Friday noon for Sunday worship, and by Tuesday 5:00pm, for Wednesday worship.

Financial Update

After the month of March, our general fund shortfall is $15,973. We are looking for ULC members and friends to help us catch up. One effort toward this will be our annual Summer Stewardship mailing. This offering comes out in late May, and it often gives us an extra boost as we head into summer. Thank you for your generosity toward our shared ministry.

New Members Event

New Member Events

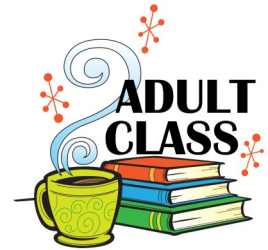

We have tentatively scheduled two New Member events, Wednesday, May 14, 6pm, and Sunday, May 18, 10:00am. If you would like to become a member of our ULC family, or you know someone who would, please call the church office, or speak with Pastor Tom. There will also be a New Member Orientation on Tuesday, May 13, at 6:30pm.

ULC Adult Education in May

Sunday Adult Class "Conversations with the Pastor"

Join us for a series of Bible conversations in May. Pastor Tom will prepare a particular biblical question to discuss together. Where exactly the conversation goes will depend on you! Join us for coffee, a treat, and the conversation. Here are the topics:

May 4	Is Faith Without Works Dead?
May 11	What Gender Is God?
May 18	Does My Baptism Really Matter?
May 25	Are Church and State Really Separate?

Thursday Morning Bible Study "Judas and Peter"

Please join us as we complete our study on two of Jesus' most well-known disciples. Judas and Peter play prominent roles in the final days and hours of the life of Jesus. In some ways they are very similar, but their futures could not be more different. Please join us Thursdays at 9:30am in the fellowship hall May 8, 15, and 22, as we complete this fascinating Bible study.

Women of the ELCA Bible Study "Receiving the Spirit's Flame: Spiritual gifts in the life of the church"

You are invited this May to join us for a Bible study written by Cara Strickland called, "Receiving the Spirit's Flame". As we begin to dig into Scripture and talk about our spiritual gifts, it's important to remind ourselves these gifts are given to us by God. A spiritual gift is nothing we can ever earn, nor is it something we'd think to ask for, yet a gift that is exactly right for us. Join us Friday, May 9, at 10:00am as we assess our own spiritual gifts.

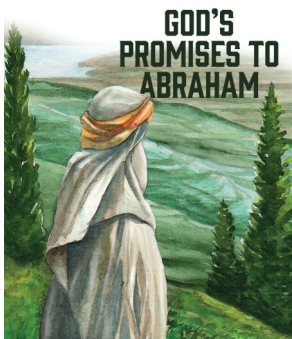

Calling All Men

We are Calling All ULC Men and friends to our monthly breakfast and Bible study. This month we are starting a series on Abraham. Maybe as children you remember singing:

*Father Abraham had many sons. Many sons had Father Abraham.
I am one of them, and so are you. So, let's all praise the Lord.*

We meet Abraham in Genesis 12, and his life with Sarah are the focus of the biblical narrative for 12 chapters. We will pick 3 stories to discuss and apply to our everyday lives. Please join us for breakfast pizza and the first of these studies on May 17 at 8:30am in the fellowship hall. Our first session is entitled, "Trusting God Most of the Time".

Last days of Church School:

Sunday, May 11th and Wednesday, May 14th

Sunday students will have their year-end party
and help lead worship,
and WWJ students will be singing
in worship and having their year-end party.

VBS at ULC

will be August 4th-7th.

Please mark your calendars!

We would love to have you participate.

Wednesday Meals:

May 7 - Chicken nuggets

May 14 - Meatball subs

May 21 and 28 - Off

"The Lord is the Strength of My Life"

This quote from Psalm 27:1 has been our theme for the 2024-25 Church School year. As we move into the summer, remember to wear your wristbands which bear this theme, and remember the Lord makes us strong in the face of every hardship in our lives. If you have lost your wristband or need a new one, stop by church, because we have more.

ULC Pollinator Garden

Protecting MN/ND Pollinators

Our pollinator garden near the alley is doing well. Plant stalks and leaf litter are not removed in the fall. We leave about 1-2 inches of leaf litter to provide habitat for insects and to retain moisture for pollinator plants. Many native insects spend the winter in the leaf litter on the ground and inside the stalks of plants. To help pollinators, leaf litter and the plant stalks are left until there are spring flowers in bloom. Our principal pollinators are insects – native bees, butterflies, and some moths. To get more involved or simply to learn more, search NDSU pollinators or MN DNR pollinators.
