

WELCA May News

Hello everyone,
Well our season of festivals has begun! Our Spring Salad Luncheon was a wonderful way to start. Thank you to Sandy Norby for bringing spring inside with her beautiful table, basket, and window decor. It was delightful! Thank you to all for your time and talents, from delicious desserts to scrumptious salads. It was a lunch all enjoyed. Thanks to the busy bakers, the salad makers, our friendly plant grower, crafters, quilters and basket makers! Thank you to the youth group for your help with the tables and our guests. Your smiles were very welcoming to all. And of course, thanks to our dish room trio, you always do a wonderful job. It takes all of you from set-up to clean-up to make this event special, so thank you

Our proceeds from the day are as follows:

Quilts - $500
Luncheon - $1710
Cards/Napkins - $412.50
Bake Sale - $942.25
Raffle - $1435
Donations - $710
Total - $5709.75

Our next event will be the Rhubarb Festival on June 13th. A recipe book is being put together by Genny Olson, so if you have a favorite rhubarb recipe please drop it off in the yellow folder by the office door. There is a yellow file folder in the mail slots by the office door. This event is always a great time for our WELCA group to host.
