The Echo

UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

2122 University Avenue

Grand Forks, North Dakota 58203

I am so excited to have our first intern, Pastor Morgan Olson and her family, here at ULC. However, Morgan is not my first intern. Our synod has called on me to supervise interns who have served their internships in parishes without pastors. So, I have supervised interns at St. Marks in Grand Forks, the Central Valley Parish in Reynolds and Buxton, the Finley Sharon Lutheran Parish, Northwood Evangelical Lutheran and Washington Lutheran Parish, and Our Savior's Lutheran in Larimore. I have found these experiences to be personally enriching, and now I am excited to share this ministry with all of you.

Still, we do not have Morgan to ourselves. Until September 2027, she will also be serving at St. Paul's Lutheran in Honeyford. We will share her twenty hours apiece each week, but I am certain it won't be long before you wish she would be with us full-time. I say this because I believe we will enjoy her time with us as much as I have enjoyed my time with the previous eight interns that I have been blessed to supervise. Morgan is a very talented pastor with a lot of energy. She will not do everything at ULC, but she will be involved in everything she wants to experience in her year with us.

Margo and I had a wonderful internship experience at Augustana Lutheran in Portland, Oregon. We were there September 1, 1987, to August 31, 1988. Northeast Portland was a very unique inner-city experience for us. The day we moved in a passerby asked me if I wanted to buy a brand-new VCR. I found myself wondering where it was stolen from as I politely lied that we already had one. Next door to us lived two beautiful children under the age of five. Sadly, their mom sold drugs out of their house. However, the congregation was absolutely amazing, I learned so much, and Margo and I had a lot of fun.

I preached twelve sermons that year. We had no funerals, no weddings, and no confirmation students. I visited lots of aging people, started a new youth program for them, learned to love teaching adult Bible study, wrote my first puppet play that debuted Christmas Eve 1987, and had a really nice office. This reminds me. You should definitely stop by and visit Morgan in her office. She has moved into what was once the Stephen Ministry lounge. When you are there, you can think of me in my bare office in Portland, Oregon, with a few books and pictures on my shelves. Morgan's office is prettier!

My supervisor was Pastor Mitch Jones. He was a wonderful supervisor who became a friend and colleague. Surprisingly, he allowed me to load eleven middle school youth into a conversion van and drive them all by myself, 333 miles, to Chelan, Washington, where we boarded a ferry for a two-and-a-half-hour boat ride on Lake Chelan to a retreat at Holden Village. It was an amazing event and experience for the Augustana Lutheran youth, and especially for their intern pastor. However, on the way home we traveled through the Columbia Gorge in a terrible storm and did not arrive home until 2:30 in the morning.

I wonder what kinds of experiences Morgan will have here with us at ULC! One thing for sure, I hope you all will consider yourself teachers this year. It's not that you know more about church than Morgan. This is just me remembering how much individual members of that Portland congregation taught me that year. As I write this I think especially about Aggie Anderson. She was 70 years old at the time and had recently retired. She was amazing and involved in almost everything at Augustana. She once gave me this kernel of wisdom: "The best pastors are those who are kind and take time to listen."

Allow me to say that none of us by ourselves knows everything about church. But maybe Aggie's words are a good place for us to start. Wherever we are and whatever we are doing this next year, let's strive to be kind and take time to listen to others, and I'll add, in Jesus' name. And one more thing, people of God, do me this favor. Show Pastor Morgan what you have shown me for 33 years, that the best part about serving as pastor in a congregation is love. That may sound overly sentimental at first, but once a very wise Bishop Rick Foss told a group of pastors, "Love your people, and I bet they will love you back."

This is most certainly true! You are in my prayers,

Worship Matters

World Communion Sunday October 4

We will join Christians across the world celebrating Holy Communion on the first Sunday in October. We call this World Communion Sunday, and we do it not only for the grace, forgiveness and love provided in the meal, but also as a sign of Christian unity. The first celebration of World Communion Sunday was held on October 1, 1933, at Shadyside Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, to emphasize unity at a time of great global tension. On this day we remember that Christ's table is worldwide and everyone who calls on the Lord is welcome.

Bible Wednesday and Sunday October 7 and 11

We are happy to announce Bible Wednesday is October 7 at the 6:00pm worship service, and Bible Sunday is October 11 is the 10:00am worship service. On these days, our three-year-old children receive story Bibles, second-grade children receive Bible story books, and third-grade children receive the Holy Bible (NRSV). Thank you to our ULC Women of the ELCA for providing the story Bibles and NRSV Bibles for our children.

New Member Sunday and Wednesday October 18 and 21

We are looking for people who are interested in becoming a member of our ULC family and providing new member events to publicly receive them into our congregation. The dates are Sunday, October 18 and Wednesday, October 21. We are inviting new members to join us for a new member orientation on Thursday, October 15, 6:30pm in the lounge. If you are interested in becoming a new member of ULC or you know someone who would, please contact Pastor Tom or the church office.

Confirmation Sunday October 25

Our 10th grade class is preparing to affirm their baptismal faith and be confirmed by our congregation on Sunday, October 25 at the 10:00am worship service. 10 students are eligible to be confirmed. All ULC members are encouraged to attend Confirmation Sunday worship to support these young women and men, and to celebrate with them at a special reception which will follow the service.

Honey Wednesday and Sunday October 14 and 18

We are hosting Honey Wednesday and Sunday again this October. You can purchase honey to care for youth at Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch. In this small way, you can change the course of a young life. Honey Days are hosted by congregations across the US, to support the residential and educational programs at Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch.

If you would like to help, all you have to do is order your bottle or bottles of honey at ULC on Wednesday, October 14 or Sunday, October 18. We suggest a minimum $10 donation for each 11-ounce bottle of delicious honey. Then, wait for your bottle of Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch honey to arrive in the mail. It's a tasty way to help a child.

Eighth Annual Calling All Men Fish Fry October 11

ULC Calling All Men are hosting the Eighth Annual Fish Fry on Sunday, October 11, from 5:00 to 6:30pm. Once again, we will have both in-person and drive-thru meals. The walleyes were caught this summer by ULC members at Devils Lake. Thank you especially to Kevin and Shelly Meyer and Gary and Genny Olson for their fishing talents! The fish will be served with baked potato, baked beans, cole slaw, roll, and dessert. Please call the church office to reserve your spot – in person or drive-thru. The cost of the event is a free will offering! All proceeds will go to ULC.

17th Annual Trunk or Treat Festival October 31

Come and spend Halloween with us! On Saturday, October 31, we will host our 17th annual "Trunk or Treat" festival from 3:00-5:00pm in our church parking lot. We are hoping as many of you as possible will decorate the trunk of your car, van, SUV or truck. You can be as simple or elaborate as you want. You can even dress up yourself! A light supper of hot dogs and chips will also be served.

PLEASE NOTE: We are inviting ULC members and friends who have businesses or serve nonprofit organizations to have trunks as well.

At 3:00pm, Children will move from trunk to trunk to receive whatever treat you are giving away. How about 20 trunks this year? We are also willing to provide treats for your trunk, or we can also supplement whatever you decide to bring. Let us know if you would like us to help. Will you assist us with this ministry project?

PLEASE NOTE: We are also collecting non-perishable food for the Salvation Army Pantry. One trunk will be open to collect these items.

ULC Adult Education in October

Sunday Morning Adult Class

Yes, we are meeting but are still working on putting together a schedule. We have had some great discussions so far, so grab a cup of coffee and a cookie and please come and join us. We meet at 8:45 each Sunday morning. Look for a schedule to come out soon.

Thursday Morning Bible Study "The Gospel of Mark"

Thursday morning Bible study will continue its study the Gospel of Mark, which is our Sunday Gospel reading from Advent 2026 through the season of Pentecost in 2027 (November 29, 2026, through November 21, 2027). Mark is the shortest Gospel, it has no birth story of Jesus, and it has a rather strange and confusing ending. Both Matthew and Luke use Mark as a main source when they write their Gospels. Mark uses the word "immediately" a lot and has something mysterious about it that we call the Messianic secret.

Session 3: Mark 3	(October 1)	"Trouble with a Capital T"
Session 4: Mark 4-5	(October 8)	"Parables, Boat Rides, Miracles"
Session 5: Mark 6	(October 15)	"Deep Sadness, Great Joy"
Session 6: Mark 7	(October 22)	"Lip Service Vs. Believing Hearts"
Session 7: Mark 8	(October 29)	"Who Is This Jesus?"

Women of the ELCA (WELCA) Fall Bible Study "Bold Faith on an Unexpected Journey" By the Rev. Tiffany Chaney

In our fall Bible study, we see that faith often leads us down paths we didn't expect – into wilderness places, across unfamiliar lands, and through seasons of grief and hope.

Session 2: Choosing loyalty, finding love
Scripture: Ruth 1:1-22; 2:8-12; 4:13-17

Ruth, a Moabite widow, chooses to remain with her mother-in-law Naomi and step into an unknown future. Her bold faith is revealed in loyalty, courage and openness to God's provision. In Ruth's story, we see how God weaves love, community and promise through even the most uncertain paths. This session invites participants to reflect on the risks of faith, the gift of relationships and the ways God works through everyday loyalty to bring forth extraordinary love.

Please join us, ULC women and friends, on Friday, October 16, from 10:00-11:30.

Calling All Men "Hope Against All Odds"

This fall, Calling All Men is reflecting on biblical stories where there seems to be little hope but still hope wins the day. This month we turn to Daniel 6.

Session 2: What If Faith Puts You in Mortal Danger

What if faith requires you to do something that causes you or the people you love harm, maybe even their or your life? Daniel was asked to pray to the king instead of God. He would not. He chose to pray to God and risk harm to his life. While it turns out well in the end and makes for a great story of faith, how hard might this be for you?

Please join us on October 17 at 8:30am for prayer, breakfast pizza, and this fascinating story.

Fall Financial Update

We fell back a lot in our income this summer and grew a larger shortfall in the general fund. At the end of August, we were short $46,145 in our general fund. Of course, summertime months mean lower income even though ministry at ULC continues. Still, in light of this larger shortfall, we ask you these two things:

- Please re-start or continue your regular giving
- Please consider an extra gift to help us catch up

As part of this effort, the ULC Church Council decided to help. They voted to move $15,000 from the Christenson funds to the general fund. This is a one-time financial assist that this council does not ever wish to repeat. It was their hope you would see this action, and you would be encouraged to raise the rest of the shortfall. Who knows? Maybe by the end of the year, we can pay all $15,000 back to the Christenson fund. That would be amazing!

We thank you for your generosity throughout the year. Please remember that whatever you can do to help us catch up is much appreciated. And remember that no gift is too small.

ULC Endowment Fund Moment

The Mission Endowment Fund will meet Tuesday, November 3rd at 5:30pm. They are open to your grant requests, so please bring them to the church office by Tuesday, October 20th. The grant request form is available on our website or in the church office. If you have any questions about either giving gifts to the Endowment Fund or applying for grants, Endowment board members are Joyce Austin, Curt Hanson, Mike Juntunen (chair), Kevin Meyer (treasurer), Cindy Strom, and Pastor Tom.

ULC Visitation Team

Our Visitation Team will meet at 2:00pm, Fridays, October 2, 9, 16, and 30 to visit nursing home and homebound members.

They will also meet on Friday, October 23, to write cards for those same wonderful people. If you are interested in either visiting people or writing cards, please feel welcome to join us!

Growing Our Care & Connection

As I begin my time as Intern Pastor at University Lutheran, I'm excited to think about different ways we can grow in how we care for and stay connected with one another.

So much care already happens here through visits, cards, phone calls, meals, prayers, and quiet acts of kindness. I'd love to build on that by developing a Care & Connection Team, with ways for people of all ages and schedules to participate.

You don't need to attend a weekly meeting or make a big-time commitment.

You could:

- Visit a homebound member or nursing home resident.
- Make a birthday phone call or send a card.
- Deliver a meal after a new baby, surgery, or loss.
- Check in with someone who could use encouragement.
- Bring your kids along for a visit.
- Pray for members of our congregation.

Some opportunities might take five minutes. Others might grow into lasting friendships. You can choose what fits your time, interests, and comfort level.

Over the next few months, we'll explore what this team could look like—and I'd love to hear from you! Reach out if you'd like to participate, have an idea, or already offer care that we could support.

Catch me after worship, call/text or email me, or leave a note for me in the church office. You can simply say, "I'd like to learn more," or "Here's something I could help with."

Email: molson006@luthersem.edu

Phone: 701-740-1739

Together, we can help everyone in our congregation know:
you are remembered, you are cared for, and you belong.

—Intern Pastor Morgan

WOMEN OF THE ELCA Purpose Statement

As a community of women created in the image of God, called to discipleship in Jesus Christ, and empowered by the Holy Spirit,

We commit ourselves to grow in faith, affirm our gifts, support one another in our callings, engage in ministry and action, and promote healing and wholeness in the Church, the society, and the world.

Update from Eastern ND Synodical Meeting in Kulm, ND.

"the joy of the Lord is your strength." Nehemiah 8:10 was the theme of this year's business meeting at Zion Lutheran Church. About 26 women met to worship together, elect officers, and learn about programs that help our neighbors here in North Dakota and around the world. Noting that our Grand Forks region didn't have a representative to the board, our own Judy Larson stepped up and was elected GF Cluster Representative. Please pray for her and support her as she fulfills her duties, such as passing on information from the national WELCA organization to our local churches.
