The Echo

UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHURCH
2122 University Avenue
Grand Forks, North Dakota 58203

Too many people associated with University Lutheran Church have died in recent months. Since the middle of August, we have said goodbye to 10 of our people who have passed away. One of them, Ken Dawes, asked his son, Chris, in the hospital one night, something like this, "Tell me, again about heaven." I have been thinking about this question ever since, and because this coming Sunday, November 1st, is All Saints' Day, I thought it would be good to write a little something about heaven. Of course, as the song says, we can only imagine, until that day we ourselves leave this mortal world behind.

Some of the images we often get about heaven are maybe not exactly true. For example, are there really pearly gates and golden streets? In Revelation 21:21, it does say this about heaven: "And the twelve gates are twelve pearls, each of the gates is a single pearl, and the street of the city is pure gold, transparent as glass." While these verses are clear and one might say they are true, this is something we cannot know. Furthermore, maybe it doesn't really matter. Perhaps the Bible describes heaven with precious gems like pearls and a precious metals like gold simply to say that heaven is truly amazing.

What about Peter? As we often hear, will St. Peter really meet you at the gates of heaven? This comes from Matthew 16:16, when Peter confesses that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of the Living God. In response to Peter's faithful answer, Jesus says in Matthew 16:19: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven." This is what the church refers to as "the power of the keys". What this does is give to Peter and those who come after him the authority to forgive sins. Yet it has often been reduced to poor Peter having to tend the pearly gates waiting to let Christians of all times and places into heaven.

Instead, I prefer to focus on relational things when it comes to heaven. For example, Isaiah 25:6-9 speaks about heaven as a giant feast for all people. Picture as far as the eye can see, tables set with delicious food and beverage for people to eat and drink. What is more relational than sharing a supper with the Lord and with all the people of God? Isn't that more appealing than pearly gates and golden streets? And while we are eating that feast, the Bible says God is eating too. God is swallowing up death, destroying it forever, while wiping away the tears from our eyes and the sadness from our lives.

Nels Ellertson, longtime ULC member who died at 101 years old, once told me he had a vision of heaven just like this. He said that when he died, he was walking through a beautiful grassy meadow. At the end of the meadow was a hill which he had to climb. When he got to the top of the hill, he saw picnic tables full of food and people as far as the eye could see. At the tables closest to him, he saw all his family who had died and were now with Jesus. As he looked at them, one member of his family said: "Welcome, Nels! What took you so long?" Nels and I agreed that God gave him this amazing vision of heaven.

Revelation 21:1-5 is my favorite image of heaven. It is entirely relational. It says: "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them and be their God; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more." In this beautiful Scripture passage, we discover that heaven means we are forever with God and his people. We discover that heaven means God takes away all our earthly struggles. We discover as it says in Revelation 21:5 that heaven means our bodies, lives, and spirits are new.

Over the years, for some reason heaven has been associated with people sitting on clouds and playing harps. Such an image is not biblical. What is biblical according to Revelation 21 is that when we go to heaven, we see the Lord, we live with the Lord, and we have fellowship with the Lord and with one another. This is a beautiful image of a life with God where relationships are healed, and where the people of God gather together to worship the Lord and feast on his goodness. Maybe picnic tables, food and drink, and people as far as the eye can see, really is an amazing picture of heaven and eternal life for us.

We can only imagine…and believe! You are in my prayers, Pastor Pam

Worship

All Saints' Sunday - Special Recognition Service

All Saint's Sunday is November 1 at 10:00am. On this day, we recognize the saints of the church. Properly speaking, saints are people who have faith in Jesus Christ and his saving work on the cross. This is our time we remember members and friends who in the past year have died with this faith, and those who we baptized into this faith. This recognition includes lighting white and red candles on the altar, as well as the presentation of white and red carnations to the families who are grieving the death or celebrating the baptism of loved ones.

Veterans Day 2026 - November 11

This year Veterans Day, November 11, falls on a Wednesday. While this is regular Wednesday worship, we will have special recognition and prayers for any active or retired members of our armed services. Please join us as we say THANK YOU to you for your service!

New Member Events - November 15 and 18

We will receive people into our ULC family on Sunday, November 15, and Wednesday, November 18. If you would like to become a member of ULC or you know someone who would, please contact Pastor Tom or the church office. We will be hosting a New Member Orientation on Thursday, November 12, at 6:30pm in the church lounge.

Thanksgiving Eve Worship

Thank You, Lord, for People Places, and Things

November 25

Please join us Wednesday, November 25, for this special Thanksgiving Eve worship. The them is "Thank the Lord for People, Places and Things"! This year everyone gets involved in the service by making personal lists on the bulletin of people, places and things for which they are thankful. This service of thanksgiving is divided in three sections with a meditation, song, and Bible reading for each section. The ULC Church Choir will be singing too.

The Ministry of Worship will serve soup and bread supper with pumpkin dessert before worship at 5:00, and worship will begin at 6:00. We will collect food for the food pantry as well. May we suggest canned soup, canned fruits and vegetables, cold cereal, peanut butter, jelly, boxed or canned meals, spaghetti sauce, noodles, and boxed desserts.

Ministry of the Month

This month we are doing something a little different. We are raising money for a neighbor, Adrain Walker and his family, who are facing an unimaginable loss after a house fire destroyed their home. This family of 7 lost everything, including the place where 2 of the grandkids had grown up and made so many memories. All the money we collect in our Noisy Offering for the month of November will go toward helping this family with temporary housing, clothing, shoes, food, toiletries, personal belongings, and other everyday essentials while they search for a new place to live and begin rebuilding their lives.

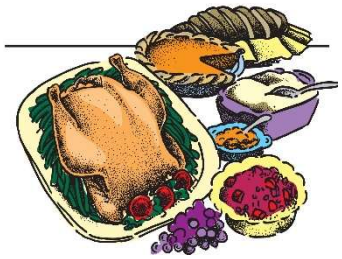

Decorating for Advent and Christmas - Deck the Halls!

Please join us on Sunday, November 29 at 12:00pm to decorate the sanctuary and the church for Christmas. There will be caramel rolls and fruit served at 11:15, and after we get done eating, we will get busy and put up trees, wreaths, garlands, nativity scenes, and more. It's a really fun family way to begin the holiday season by helping to make the church look festive.

Love Feast

Tuesday, November 24

This is the 25th year of Love Feast! Wow, what a great legacy! ULC has been active serving one monthly meal for all these years. This meal is a wonderful opportunity for churches to provide delicious food for a wide variety of people. We do this at Zion United Methodist on 24th Avenue South in Grand Forks. The meal is served on Tuesday, November 24 from 5:30-6:30 pm. Once again, we will serve turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, corn, roll, and pumpkin dessert. Please stay tuned for further details later in the month of November, and when we ask for volunteers, let us know if you might be able to help.

ULC Visitation Team

Christian Care and Love

Each Friday the Visitation Team meets at church at 2:00pm to head out and visit our nursing home and homebound members. If you would like to be part of this ministry you are more than welcome! We need visitors! Please come to a meeting and ask questions about visitation. You may even tag along as team members make visits to see how it works.

Also, please join us for a special meeting on Friday, November 13, at 1:00pm, and we will write cards to all our homebound and nursing home friends for Thanksgiving.

Soaring Like Eagles

Just a Little Fun

We are looking to have a little fun this year with our eagle theme. Did you look at the eagle trivia in September? Now in November, here is some fun with eagles:

How Many Tiny Little Jesus' Can You Count?

Since Lent, we have had some fun with those tiny little rubber Jesus figurines this year. We teased that everyone needs a little Jesus. On the other hand, we like to say as followers of Jesus that we have Jesus in our hearts. So, for the fun of it, the question we have for you is:

"How many tiny little rubber Jesus' fit into an eagle juice carafe?

You will find this carafe in the narthex with sheets of paper to guess how many tiny little rubber Jesus's are in it. The winner gets a beautiful eagle suncatcher. You may guess on the following dates: November 4, 8, 11 and 15. Thanks to Joyce and Kevin Austin for loaning us the juice carafe.

Where's Regal the Eagle?

"Where's Waldo" has nothing on "Where's Regal the Eagle?" Your task is to find where our Regal the Eagle is each Sunday and Wednesday. When you find it, you can find Pastor Tom, Seanne, Jen, or Morgan, and you will receive a fun size Hershey chocolate bar. Regal the Eagle may be hiding on the main floor, upstairs, or in the lower level. We will place an "X" on any door where there is no chance Regal will be hiding from you. Thank you to Genny and Gary Olson for loaning us Regal! You can look for Regal on the following dates:

November 11, 15, 18, 22, 25 and 29

Women of the ELCA (WELCA) Fall Bible Study

"Bold Faith on an Unexpected Journey"
By the Rev. Tiffany Chaney

In our fall Bible study, we see that faith often leads us down paths we didn't expect – into wilderness places, across unfamiliar lands, and through seasons of grief and hope.

Session 3: Proclaiming resurrection in hope
Scripture: John 20:1–18
Mary Magdalene's journey transitions from that of a grieving friend to the first preacher of the good news, after she shows up at the empty tomb and encounters the risen Jesus. Her story declares that women are entrusted to carry resurrection hope into a hurting world. This session encourages participants to recognize their own call to bear witness and to proclaim hope in Christ.

Please join us, ULC women and friends, on Friday, November 13, from 10:00-11:30.

Calling All Men

"Hope Against All Odds"

This fall, Calling All Men is reflecting on biblical stories where there seems to be little hope but still hope wins the day. This month we turn to the Apostle Paul.

Session 3: Singing Through Sad Times
You may not be a singer, but we all likely sing a song or whistle a tune when we feel happy. But can we sing that same song or whistle that same tune through a hard or sad time. We will hear a story about how Paul sings his way through a hard time, and while doing so God reaches out to save him. It's a great story with a wonderful ending that should make us all sing!

Please join us, ULC men and friends, on Saturday, November 14, at 8:30am.

Fall Financial Update

By now you have received your special mailing with our "Catch Up" fund request. The ULC Church Council is so appreciative of your support of our shared ministry through the years. For over 75 years now we served the Lord Jesus Christ in this community as part of the body of Christ, and we continue to do so in all kinds of important ways. Please help us however you are able as we together seek to overcome this year's financial challenge. No gift is too small!

At the end of September, our general fund shortfall was $33,215, but the "Catch Up" funds will be coming throughout November and December. May God bless you and ULC too!

ULC Endowment Fund Moment

The Mission Endowment Fund meets Tuesday, November 3, at 5:30pm. They will be looking at the recent performance of our endowments and considering grants. If you have any questions about giving gifts to the Endowment Fund or applying for grants, Endowment board members are Joyce Austin, Curt Hanson, Mike Juntunen (chair), Kevin Meyer (treasurer), Cindy Strom, and Pastor Tom.

From our Intern Pastor

Thank you for the warm welcome to University! Over these first weeks, I've enjoyed visiting Bible studies and other groups, getting to know you, and learning about the rhythms of worship and life in this congregation. I've even learned a few things about frying fish! Each conversation has helped me feel more at home and learn a little more about the people who make University the community it is.

I'm also getting involved in our care, connection, and visitation ministry, and I look forward to making more visits in the coming month. If you would appreciate a visit—or know someone who would—please reach out. Whether you're navigating a difficult season, finding it harder to get to church, or would simply enjoy some conversation, I'd love to connect.

As November unfolds, we'll also begin looking toward Advent and our theme, "Ready or Not." There always seems to be something else to prepare, finish, or figure out this time of year. Yet Advent invites us to pause and notice what God is stirring among us, even while so much feels unfinished.

Ready or not, God comes near. Into our busy schedules, our unanswered questions, our joy, and our weariness. We'll make room together to listen, to wonder, and to notice signs of hope taking shape in our lives and in the world.

I'm grateful to be here with you, and I look forward to all we'll share in the months ahead.

Intern Pastor Morgan
